Mr. Colby:

AT 1. You have been asked to present a Career Intelligence Medal to [redacted] who recently retired from the Personnel Evaluation and Counseling Staff/CS (prior to that, with CA Staff) on Friday, 23 February. Yes ✓ No __ [redacted] Advise STA

AT 2. [redacted] called to remind that the annual "giving" for the Class of 1940 is due 24 February.

X1 3. [redacted] stopped in last week, hoping to see you. Your schedule did not permit getting him on the calendar -- he was only here Thursday and Friday. He asked that I give you his best regards.

4. When you talked with Ray Cline last week, he suggested that he come out "Monday or so" to talk with you and the Director for half an hour re problems with Chiefs of Station. Do you owe Mr. Cline a call -- putting him off until some later time -- or is there any other follow-up? Awaiting reminder

5. We have scheduled a luncheon with ORD officers for Tuesday, 20 February.

6. You will recall that you called [redacted] a couple of weeks ago regarding your presentation to the last FAES group -- you felt we are missing something in our presentation. [redacted] indicated that he had some ideas on that, and he has now called to say a paper is ready for you. He believes you may have some questions and therefore asked for an appointment. If it's OK with you, I'll go ahead and set something up. 3:00 21 Feb. 25X 25X STA

AT 7. [redacted] has asked if you would have cocktails, dinner, and an informal session with the Advanced Intelligence Seminar [redacted] on Thursday, 15 March. Accept ✓ Regret __

Advise 3/16
